"Fun Cam: "Basement Rock" – a full-bodied jam of chunky riffs and analog lushness!"
Jamsphere Magazine

Years of playing in popular Toronto bands including The Four Kellys, Crispin's Glove and The And Thens just to name a few, while extensively performing at various venues throughout southern and central Ontario. His individualistic flare, and outlandish live antics garnered Cameron the stage name "Fun Cam".

"A professional and vibrant live performer who can play classics like Neil Young, & Bowie, but then switch it up and have the entire audience singing his rendition of Britney Spears or Madonna. He's a true original and an exceptional talent."

- Nico Szid Owner of The Paddock, Toronto ON

"Fun Cam's cover of Hit Me Baby One More Time is simply genius, quite breath taking, actually. It's acoustic, yet it's so powerful – Cam's vocal is brilliantly suited to this kind of performance... the music could work as a rock and roll show, but also as just one man and his guitar – the strength is likely to blow you away in either scenario."

PRESS CLIPPINGS

"...offering a playful vibe that's almost Weezer-esque. Cam feels warm and nostalgic, like an album from a lost era before Auto-Tune and glossy overproduction."

- Confront Magazine

"No added trinkets on any of these tracks – what you hear is raw and real, like your mom and dad's old records of their favorite rock band. It's what good music is, always has been, and always will be."

"Basement Rock by Fun Cam is part power pop and part comedy in the vein of Fountains Of Wayne. There are some excellent performances on the album and some good songwriting."
